

MEMORANDUM ON UNDERSTANDING OF COOPERATION between

KYRGYZ INSTITUTE OF LANGUAGES AND CULTURE, Shopokov, KYRGYZSTAN

and

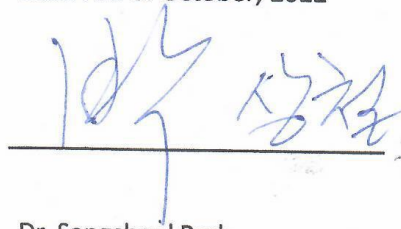

HONAM UNIVERSITY, GWANGJU, SOUTH KOREA

In order to develop further friendship and cooperation between the people of our two countries, to encourage academic exchange and collaboration between our two universities, and to advance teaching and research in our respective institutions, Kyrgyz Institute of languages and culture and Honam University, Gwangju, South Korea agree to the following terms of cooperation:

1. Both universities consent to establish a cooperative relationship through which each university will engage in and expedite the academic exchange of information pertinent to teaching, research, cross-cultural cooperation, and other matters.
2. Contingent on budgetary and other practical considerations, any of the following programs may be pursued by the two parties by mutual agreement:
 - 2.1 exchange of faculty members and research personnel
 - 2.2. exchange of administrative and other professional personnel
 - 2.3 exchange of students
 - 2.4 collaboration in research and other projects
 - 2.5 collaboration in organizing symposia and other academic meetings and conferences
 - 2.6 exchange of academic data, demographic, and other information
 - 2.7 special projects deemed of mutual benefit
3. To assist in developing enhanced cooperative relationships between our two institutions, each university will, as far as it is reasonably able, provide access to research, library, computing, office and other support facilities for visiting faculty and academic personnel.

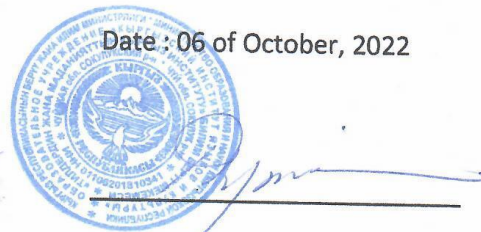

4. Each university will endeavor to arrange suitable accommodations for visiting personnel and students. Each university will provide advice and assistance for procedures including application for scholarships, visas and short-term residence requirements. Each university will be responsible for ensuring travel and living expenses for its own personnel and students.
5. To avoid students having to pay double tuition when matriculating in exchange programs, the tuition for students participating and registering for student-exchange programs will be waived by the host institution
6. Students participating in programs under this agreement must make written applications to the host institution and will be subject to the established rules and regulations governing the enrollment of students at that institution.
7. Students undertaking study under this agreement will be responsible for their own travel and health insurance costs.
8. This Memorandum of Understanding defines the intent of both parties.
9. The Memorandum will become valid upon signing by the president of Kyrgyz Institute of languages and culture and the president of Honam University. This Memorandum may be terminated by either party giving six (6) months prior notice in writing to the other party.
